

Bachelor of Science in Health Management Program Student Learning Outcomes

- Students will analyze management principles and strategies within health care organizations.
- Students will analyze financial strategies related to the management of health care organizations.
- Students will analyze regulatory guidelines that impact the health care industry.
- Students will analyze technology factors that impact the health care industry.